

Alexandra on Battery

Bed & Breakfast

Alexandra on Battery is close to the town centre of Hobart, providing a fantastic view over Hobart City, Mt Wellington and the Derwent River. The Bed & Breakfast is a popular venue from which to explore Southern Tasmania or just for a relaxing break.

Situated opposite is Alexandra Battery which was part of Hobart's early defence system, now a look out from which to admire great views.

Accommodation full of warmth and charm, in a peaceful setting in which to relax and unwind.

Experience Hobart's history, take a stroll along Salamanca markets, enjoy magnificent views or explore the many local attractions, visit museums, galleries and craft shops at Sullivans Cove.

In Sandy Bay there is a safe beach and the Royal Yacht Club of Tasmania where you can enjoy watching sailing boats from all over the world.

Wrest Point which is just around the corner, has loads to offer such as fine restaurants, the boardwalk and the casino. Follow the scenic drive down the Channel Highway to Tarooma, along the way climb the spiral steps in the historic shot tower.

Alexandra on Battery is a Bed & Breakfast in the Hobart suburb of Sandy Bay.

It has every modern convenience to make your stay relaxing and memorable. Accommodation for two people, equipped with a Queen size bed, ensuite, living room, laundry facilities, mini-fridge, tea & coffee making facilities, microwave oven, TV-VCR & DVD player, CD player and off street car parking.

In the evening dine at Hobart's finest restaurants, such as Prossers Seafood Restaurant or Sandy Bay Beach Wood-fired Pizza or Ming Court Chinese Restaurant, followed by a gentle stroll along the historic waterfront.

Take a cruise down the river, drive to the summit of Mt Wellington or take a drive to historic Richmond village.

Ideal accommodation for Beach or Home Stay Breaks, or enjoy a romantic honeymoon at Alexandra on Battery.
